UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

ROGER J. STONE, JR.,

Defendant.

Criminal No. 19-cr-18-ABJ

GOVERNMENT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE

The United States of America, by and through Jessie Liu, United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, respectfully requests that this Court extend the deadline for filing one motion in limine. Until this week, the government and counsel for defendant Roger J. Stone, Jr., had been negotiating a stipulation to the admissibility of the transcript of Stone’s testimony before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. Those negotiations have concluded without success, and therefore the government intends to file a motion in limine to admit the transcript without a stipulation. Because the negotiations on this issue concluded just two days ago, the government respectfully requests that the Court permit the government to file its motion on this issue four weeks beyond the July 26, 2019 deadline for motions in limine set forth in the Scheduling Order. Defense counsel has authorized the government to advise the Court that the defense does not oppose this request.

Respectfully submitted,

JESSIE K. LIU
U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia
